

WHEN the Berks and Bucks F.A. Senior team turn out at Sandy Lane, Tooting and Mitcham on Wednesday to face the Surrey F.A. in the quarter final of the Southern Counties Amateur Championship, local supporters could well be forgiven for thinking it was a Wycombe Wanderers XI.

For, as Slough Town are involved in the Amateur Cup final against Walton and Hersham on April 14, they have decided not to risk any of their players in representatives games and have withdrawn their original six members from the team.

The Allied Counties were quick to contact Wycombe, without a midweek game next week, and as well as Peter Spittle, John Delaney and Larry Pritchard, they now have added Paul Birdseye, Mick Holifield, Tony

Eight Wanderers in 'Allies' team

Amos and Rob Williams. Dave Bullock is also named as a travelling reserve.

Wanderers therefore have no less than eight players involved and former Wycombe man Gerry Olson is also named as substitute.

If they are successful the B and B side will be away to Wiltshire in the semi-final. They are present holders of the competition.

HOST OF STARS IN INTERNATIONALS SQUAD
WYCOMBE Wanderers manager

Brian Lee has been given a list of 21 names from which the Internationals Club team will be chosen when they meet Wanderers for a Charity match in aid of S.P.A.R.K.S. on April 26.

The squad is: Dave Underwood, Bill Dodgin (Fulham), Terry Medwin, Dave Sexton (Chelsea), Pat Saward (Brighton), Bobby Robson (Ipswich), Bill McGarry (Wolves), Ray Crawford (Colchester), Bill Taylor, George Petchey (Orient), Bill Wright

(Arsenal), Jimmy Andrews, Jimmy Greaves (Spurs), Alan Sealey, Mel Hopkins, George Cohen (Fulham), Theo Foley (Charlton), Cyril Lea (Ipswich), Sammy Chung (Arsenal), Danny Blanchflower (Spurs), Frank Blunstone (Brentford).

Jimmy Hill, the Sports Television Sports personality is in charge of the team.